Bottles Thrown Through Windows

Farber Meat Market Is Vandalized Twice; Sees 'Grudge'

Local detectives were continuing with a close check on all leads today following the apparent work of vandals in the downtown section of Kingston Tuesday night when two front windows in the Norman Farber meat market at 46 Chambers street were smashed. Detective Clarence W. Brophy said that several leads are being checked closely to learn the identity of the person or persons who tossed the missiles consisting of bars of soap, milk bottles and whiskey bottles.

Detective Brophy said that the bottles used in smashing the windows were taken from behind a shed across the street from the Farber market.

In talking to a Freeman reporter today Mr. Farber said he had no knowledge of the vandals, but said "apparently someone had a terrible grudge against me for something."

The police were first notified at 6:35 p. m. last night when Mr. Farber reported that someone had thrown a cake of soap at the window and followed that act with a milk bottle which broke one of the front windows, the report said.

After Officer Thomas McGrath was detailed to check the area, the police were again notified at about 7:54 p. m. by Mr. Farber that another window had been broken in his establishment when a whiskey bottle had been tossed from the street.

Officers Walter Van Sternburgh and Charles Hoehling were assigned and investigated the area after the second complaint.

Mayor Signs Check For City Employees

Board of Public Works Pay Roll Completed Late Tuesday

Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk's first order of business today was the affixing of his signature on checks for the Board of Public Works pay roll and at the same time he announced that the members will be paid today based upon salaries as provided in the 1948 budget.

The mayor received checks at 9 a. m. today from Assistant Secretary A. Foster Windfield, who worked on the pay roll until 11 p. m. Tuesday.

Taking time out to affix his official signature on the checks for the B. P. W. before he even looked over the incoming mail this morning, Mayor Newkirk said, "signing my name on these checks gives me lots of pleasure and I'm happy that the men are finally getting paid."

Today's pay roll covers the first period for 1948, ending January 23. The roll was authorized on January 22, at a special meeting of the Board of Public Works commissioners.

Socialists Vote in Caucus to Oppose Gold Bill; Action to Come

Paris, Jan. 28 (AP)—Premier Robert Schuman's government will fall if the national assembly votes down his gold program, a cabinet spokesman said today.

Defeat threatened the gold proposal, an integral part of the government's monetary program devaluing the franc and setting up a free money market.

Schuman pleaded for support from the Socialist Party to save the program. The Socialists, although represented in the cabinet, decided unanimously in a caucus yesterday to oppose the Schuman bill to permit free trade in gold in France.

The assembly has decided to discuss the gold measure immediately, as requested by the premier.

Nothing Risked to Date

Thus far the government has not officially risked its life on the measure by demanding a vote of confidence.

Parliamentary approval is necessary only for the free gold trade phase of the program. The devaluation and free money market measures already have been put into effect by cabinet decree.

The Socialist ministers in Schuman's cabinet approved the gold measure before it was sent to the assembly. Since the Socialist deputies have voted in caucus against it, there is some question whether the Socialists can remain in the cabinet.

"The assembly's finance commission disapproved the gold bill yesterday, 17 to 15, the Communists and the adherents of Gen. Charles de Gaulle already have expressed opposition."

The Socialist newspaper Le Populaire, however, indicated the party's opposition went farther than the gold clause. Deputy Henri Nogues wrote in the newspaper that "it is really and truly the government's entire economic policy which is in question." He added, however, that the Socialists have no desire to overthrow the Schuman government.

One political observer declared the Socialists could not overthrow the government because "there's nobody left but de Gaulle after Schuman."

$5,000 Fire Breaks Out in Closet of Gorham Residence

Blaze Starts in Clothes Closet on Second Floor of House on Andrew Street

A fire of an undetermined origin which started in the clothes closet on the second floor of the Thomas L. Gorham residence at 32 Andrew street early Tuesday evening may result in approximately $5,000 damages both to the home and private possessions, it was learned today.

The fire was first noticed shortly after 5 p. m. by Thomas Gorham, Jr., while his mother was preparing the evening meal and while young Gorham's father was starting his car in the driveway before going to the store.

While the youth attempted to fight the blaze with buckets of water Mrs. Gorham notified the fire department at 5:19 p. m. and Engine 1 and Truck 1 of the Central Fire Station responded. Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy, upon arrival at the scene, summoned Engine 1 of the Cornell Fire Station.

All Clothing Gone

Talking to Gorham, who is superintendent of the Roundout branch of the Kingston post office, The Freeman learned that the heavy smoke and fire completely destroyed every piece of clothing in a large clothes closet on the second floor. "Every piece of clothing was ruined," Gorham said in describing the loss.

Praises Firemen
Gorham praised the quick work of the local firemen in combatting the blaze.

Considerable damage was wrought upon the downstairs rooms due to the excessive smoke and heat from the blaze. Much of the paint throughout the house was blistered.

Two firemen resorted to masks during the fire. Fireman Philip Ald was partially overcome by the smoke.

Dewey Gives Top Priority To G. O. P. Reply Strategy

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 28 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey gave top political priority today to directing Republican counter blows against Democratic accusations that his administration is the most wasteful and extravagant in the history of New York state.

Shortly after Democratic legislative leaders had branded him a "spend-thrift" last night, Dewey shot back that his critics possessed a "niggardly attitude" and "would like to be scavengers in human misery."

The Democratic assault was launched by the minority leaders, Senator Elmer F. Quinn and Assemblyman Irwin Steingut, when they released the first section of a two-part "study" of Dewey's fiscal policies and said the governor "has overtaxed the harassed state taxpayers by $430,000,000 since taking office in 1943."

The second part of the "study" is scheduled for release tomorrow.

Republican legislative leaders countered immediately with a statement that "on orders of their political bosses in Washington, the spokesmen of the Democratic minority in the Legislature have executed an historic backward somersault."

"Last year they officially demanded that the state budget be multiplied four times over. Today they want it reduced. First they would bankrupt the state and then they would starve its vel-

Eastern Europe Needs Consolidation and Defense by Popular Forces, Paper Says

Awaits Ripe Time

Dimitrov Would Ally Peoples With Russia When Ready

Moscow, Jan. 28 (AP)—Pravda's editorial board declared today it is opposed to the federation of eastern European states proposed by Georgi Dimitrov, Communist premier of Bulgaria.

Pravda is the official organ of the Communist party.

"The editors of Pravda," a published statement said, "consider that these countries stand in need of not a problematical and far-fetched federation or confederation, nor do they stand in need of a customs union."

"What they need," it continued, "is consolidation and defense of their independence and sovereignty by mobilization and organization of internal popular democratic forces."

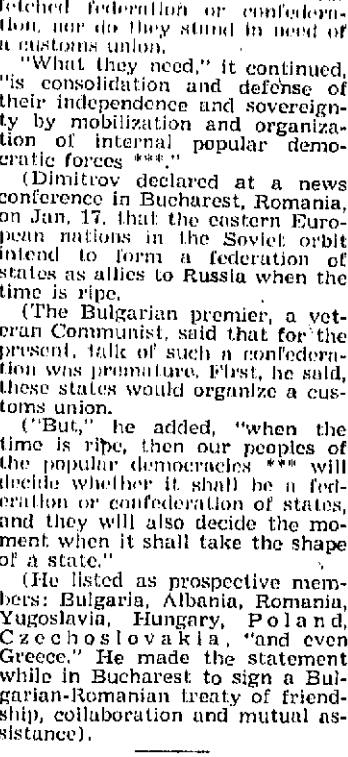

(Dimitrov declared at a news conference in Bucharest, Romania, on Jan. 17, that the eastern European nations in the Soviet orbit intend to form a federation of states as allies to Russia when the time is ripe.)

(The Bulgarian premier, a veteran Communist, said that for the present, talk of such a confederation was premature. First, he said, these states would organize a customs union.)

"But," he added, "when the time is ripe, then our peoples of the popular democracies *** will decide whether it shall be a federation or confederation of states, and they will also decide the moment when it shall take the shape of a state."

(He listed as prospective members: Bulgaria, Albania, Romania, Yugoslavia, Hungary, Poland, Czechoslovakia, "and even Greece.") He made the statement while in Bucharest to sign a Bulgarian-Romanian treaty of friendship, collaboration and mutual assistance.)

Poll of Senate Group Shows 8 Members Have No Plan to Oppose

Washington, Jan. 28 (AP)—The Senate seemed ready today to go along with President Truman's choice of Thomas B. McCabe to replace Marriner Eccles as Federal Reserve Board chairman.

There was some grumbling by admirers of Eccles, but an informal poll of the Senate Banking Committee showed that eight of the 13 members have no objections to McCabe.

Four said they have definitely decided to vote for him and four others told reporters they see no reason now for refusing.

Chairman Tobey (R-N. H.)—not one of this eight—promised a formal statement later on what he called Mr. Truman's "rather amazing action" in demoting Eccles to vice chairman.

Senator Taylor (D-Idaho) termed the proposed switch "shocking," but did not say how he intends to vote. Neither did Senator Fulbright (D-Ark.), although he declared it would be a "mistake to strip Eccles of the chairmanship he has held since February 1, 1934."

The other two members of the committee were not available for comment.

McCabe is a Republican industrialist who has been chairman of the Philadelphia Federal Reserve Bank since 1939.

Up to President
Actually, the Senate will vote merely to confirm him as a member of the reserve system's board of governors. The choice of chairman is up to the President. He announced yesterday that McCabe is the man if the Senate confirms the appointment. No House action is required.

Senator Taft (Ohio), chairman of the Senate Republican policy committee, told a reporter it was "an extraordinary thing" for Mr. Truman to demote Eccles. But Taft added the President "certainly has every right to do so."

The Ohioan commented that Eccles "never made it clear, always presented his case clearly, frankly and independently."

There was much speculation as to what extent this independence figured in Mr. Truman's decision to make a change.

Eccles and Secretary of the Treasury Snyder have disagreed on procedure for curbing bank credit, a goal set up by Mr. Truman in his 10-point anti-inflation program.

Washington friends of the two men insisted that Snyder took no active part in moving Eccles out of the No. 1 spot.

Bankers, including the reserve board's own advisory council, have opposed an Eccles proposal that banks set up a "special reserve" to put a brake on lending.

Eccles also has been under fire from the New York Stock Exchange for the board's policy of requiring a 75 per cent margin (down payment) on stocks.

Tobey said the banking committee will hold hearings on McCabe's nomination.

Heck Says Assembly Favors $5,000; Wicks Says $3,500 in Senate

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 28 (AP)—Governor Dewey today sent the Legislature an emergency message asking immediate approval of a bill validating New York city's rent control laws, but lack of an Assembly quorum prevented action at once.

Assembly leaders, finding after initial debate that an insufficient number of members were present, decided to postpone action on the measure until Monday night.

Meanwhile, the Senate, which had been in recess awaiting Assembly action, adjourned. It also will consider the bill early next week.

Prior to the agreement to delay consideration of the measure, Democratic assemblymen asked on the floor of the chamber why Dewey had not obtained passage of what they termed "proper" state anti-eviction laws.

"They asked further what the governor proposed to do," about it.

One of the questions was put by Assemblyman Leonard Furbush of Manhattan.

Assemblyman D. Mallory Stephens, Republican chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, replied that Dewey was much in need of the bill.

Fuel Oil Will Go Directly to Albany

Bixby Says Need Greater Than in Other Communities

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Jan. 28 (AP)—Approximately 2,000,000 gallons of fuel oil probably will be shipped directly to Albany behind a Coast Guard ice breaker without deliveries to other Hudson valley communities, an official said today.

James S. Bixby, area fuel oil coordinator for five valley counties, said the shipments were expected to go directly to Albany because the need is greater there. Later shipments will be made to other riverside communities, he added.

Meanwhile, the Coast Guard cutter Eastwind which is breaking a channel through the ice from New York to Albany moved north after trying in here overnight.

The cutter's skipper, Capt. John A. Glynn, said the thickest ice his ship had encountered thus far in the Hudson was only 25 inches thick. The Eastwind is equipped to cut through 15 foot thick ice floes.

The Eastwind will return to New York and convoy fuel barges north on Friday, Bixby said.

I.B.M. Plant 2 Operation Seen As Starting Soon

Poughkeepsie, Jan. 28.—Expansion into its new manufacturing building and employment of additional production personnel have been announced by officials of Plant 2, International Business Machines Corp., it was revealed today.

Although officials of the company would not comment further, it is known that machinery has been moved into the first floor of the new building and is being operated on a small scale. Hiring of new employees also is being made at this time.

Announcement of the expansion today follows earlier reports that the I.B.M. contemplated the addition of 750 to 1,000 persons to its Plant 2 pay rolls.

Thomas J. Watson, president, said that plans were to eventually employ between 4,000 and 5,000 at the Poughkeepsie plant. The new building, when completely in use, will add nearly 211,500 square feet of floor space to the approximately 100,000 square feet of the other main building.

Pedestrian Killed In Two Accidents At Tompkins Cove

New York, Jan. 28 (AP)—A pedestrian was killed and an automobile demolished in two separate accidents early today on a three-mile stretch of West Shore Railroad right-of-way between West Haverstraw and Tompkins Cove, N. Y., the railroad reported.

The accidents delayed 16 city-bound trains from half an hour to nearly five hours.

The West Shore explained the delays as follows:

Train No. 6, due in New York at 5:02 a. m. struck an unoccupied sedan near a private crossing east of Tompkins Cove. The train was held up four hours, 55 minutes.

Meanwhile, another cityward train from Newburgh and elsewhere was switched to tracks normally used by northbound trains because of the accident.

Later Train No. 40 struck and killed a man, identified as Joseph Schou of West Haverstraw, who was walking on the tracks just about three miles west of West Haverstraw.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Jan. 28 (AP)—The stock market succeeded in extending its recovery today although demand was never urgent. Dealings slowed considerably after a fairly lively opening which sent several oils, aircrafts and railroads narrowly ahead. Improvement seemed somewhat around noon. Gains ranging to 3 points were in the majority near the fourth hour.

Higher most of the session were U. S. Steel, Gulf Oil (traded ex-rights and bouncing after Tuesday's dip), Union Carbide (on news of a stock split proposal), Santa Fe (ex-dividend), Southern Pacific, Southern Railway, Mission Corp., Standard Oil (N. J.), Texas Co., Chrysler, American Smelting, Douglas Aircraft, North American Aviation, Schenley, Allied Chemical and Westinghouse Electric.

Bonds were narrow and commodities lower.

Forward in the curb were Kaiser-Frazer (on an earnings report), Aluminum Co. of America, Cities Service and St. Lawrence Preferred. Backward were St. Lawrence Common and Humble Oil.

Steel had the benefit of an array of favorable financial results from 1947 operations, topped by U. S. Steel's $126,704,272 equal to $11.66 a share against $7.29 a share in 1946.

This Is Our Heavy Navy, Mr. Jones

The U. S. Navy has one heavy aircraft carrier and two battleships afloat today—and that's all, brother. They are the U. S. S. Midway, top, and the battleships Iowa and Missouri, center. The Midway's two sister ships, the Franklin D. Roosevelt and the Coral Sea, are in drydock—one for overhaul, the other uncompleted. Two other battleships were recently laid up in the 2400-ship "mothball fleet" for lack of manpower. Chart above compares Navy's present and wartime strength in ships, planes and enlisted personnel.

Security Council Gets Dispute Over Kashmir Future

Lake Success, Jan. 28 (AP)—The India-Pakistan dispute over Kashmir was tossed back to the Security Council today with the two dominions in disagreement.

Direct talks between the two governments ended last night without accord. The Council was called today (2:30 p. m., E.S.T.) to receive a report of the fruitless negotiations.

Spokesmen for the two dominions were pessimistic over any good coming from future talks. They expressed the view that India and Pakistan would have settled their differences at home if bilateral agreement had been possible. They held the position that it was up to the United Nations.

Kashmir, with a 77 per cent Moslem population, has provisionally joined India and Indian troops now are fighting Moslem tribal invaders.

Both agree there should be an eventual plebiscite to determine whether Kashmir accedes to India or Pakistan. The disagreement hinged around these points:

Troops: Pakistan says Indian troops should be withdrawn immediately. India insists she has an obligation to maintain order and charges that Pakistan is aiding the tribal invaders from the north.

Administration: Pakistan's head of the emergency Kashmir administration, unseated and an "impartial" rule set up before a plebiscite. India says Sheikh Abdullah should remain until an election, arranged by his administration, can be held to select a provisional government. Then a plebiscite could be held.

200,000 Workers Are Idle in Detroit; Gas Is Shut Off

Detroit, Jan. 28 (AP)—Some 200,000 Detroit workers were idle today as the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, faced with a new cold wave and a natural gas shortage, cut off fuel deliveries to industrial plants for at least a week.

Hit by the blow that crippled the auto industry's "big three" of the car manufacturing world—General Motors Corp., Chrysler Corp., and the Ford Motor Co.

Briggs Manufacturing Co. and scores of smaller industries also were affected. The order suspended gas deliveries from 4 p. m. yesterday until next Tuesday.

The gas company's move, forced by what President Henry Fink called "the most critical situation the company ever has faced," came just a day after 200,000 auto workers returned to their jobs following a week-end suspension of fuel supplies to industrial users.

It was blamed on the longest siege of cold weather to grip this section of the country in 12 years. Low temperatures also were responsible for idling 15,000 workers in the Pittsburgh district—most of them victims of industrial gas supplies curtailments.

Ford apparently will suffer less by the sweeping order than other big auto producers, since it maintains its own standby gas equipment at the River Rouge plant.

However, production at the Highland Park plant was sharply curtailed, and continued operations at the tractor plant were dependent upon success of a plan to prevent forgings.

Besides cutting off industrial supplies, the gas company appealed to household users to conserve gas as much as possible.

Health for All

Early Diagnosis of Tuberculosis

We are all aware that living in the Twentieth Century has any number of advantages. We have infinitely more conveniences and leisure time. We also have advances and discoveries in medical science that weren't even suspected at the turn of the century.

Through our own negligence, too few of us benefit from them. It is almost impossible for the doctor to detect tuberculosis in its early stages without an X-ray of the chest. At one time, the victim of tuberculosis had no choice but to resign himself to eventual death from the disease. Today, the X-ray is saving the lives of thousands of patients by helping to make early diagnosis of tuberculosis possible.

We know now that pulmonary tuberculosis usually can be cured, the easier it is to cure. We know that tuberculosis in its early stages generally shows no apparent symptoms; that it is an insidious disease attacking apparently healthy people; that by the time its symptoms become noticeable to its victims, tuberculosis is no longer curable.

It has been estimated that half a million people in this country have active tuberculosis. Only half of these are known to the health authorities. Of course, some of these cases are aware of their disease but for one reason or another, however good or bad, have neglected their medical follow-up. If we are to control the spread of tuberculosis, we must find these 250,000 unknown cases and help them save their lives and the lives of those who might catch the disease from them.

One of the best ways of finding these cases is by X-raying apparently healthy people. Only twenty years ago, a chest X-ray was still rather costly and at times difficult to obtain. But today, due to improvements in equipment, chest X-rays are accessible to our entire population. Every adult should get into the habit of getting a chest X-ray once a year!

If there are facilities for chest X-rays where you work, or if your community has a mass X-ray project, by all means take advantage of it. If not, your doctor can tell you what to do and where to go for your chest X-ray. Every state has a tuberculosis association and most cities, towns and counties have local tuberculosis associations to aid and advise you.

The attorney general ordered court martial proceedings against a number of persons arrested.

Dewey and Stassen To Fight It Out In New Hampshire

Exeter, N. H., Jan. 28 (AP)—The psychologically important New Hampshire Presidential Primary—the first in the nation—today shaped up on the Republican side as a two-man fight between Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York and Harold E. Stassen.

With the voting only six weeks away, top flight G.O.P. leaders said these two appeared far out in front and that a spokesman for Senator Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) sent word Taft would not even attempt to seek pre-convention support here.

Stassen moved into this Southern New Hampshire town in a jubilant mood after winning an announcement of support from Huntley H. Spaulding, former governor of New Hampshire and five times a delegate to the national convention.

Another prominent Republican leader who publicly pledged support to Stassen was Robert Burroughs of Manchester, former national committeeman.

The 40-year-old Stassen told the New Hampshire Young Republicans last night that he was conducting his campaign with the aim of assuring that the party adopted a "truly liberal platform."

"Clearly," he said, "the issues are much more important than any of the personalities involved." Stassen said that his supporters would enter a full slate of delegates but they would be officially unpledged. He denied one reporter's suggestion that he was trying to sidestep a direct showdown with Dewey in the Primary and declared, "Dewey is doing the same thing."

One of Dewey's leading supporters, Robert Upton, is running for a delegate seat officially unpledged, although he has publicly announced his support of the New York governor.

After a visit to a textile mill in this small town, Stassen will head into northern New England again, stopping off at the University of New Hampshire at Durham en route to Maine.

Dewey Gives Top

level party sources in Washington said Dewey was in advance by persons in the White House. The spokesman did not include President Truman in the group.

Albany Republican sources assessed the Democratic criticism as the first major assault in what the Democrats say privately is to be a full-blown drive to tear down Dewey as a presidential prospect.

The Democratic analyst of the financial history of the Dewey administration points up "the skyrocketing expenditures of the state, now at an all-time high," Quinn and Stengert said in an accompanying statement.

The study, made by research staffs of the Democratic party, lists figures purporting to show that expenses of the state government have risen tremendously under Governor Dewey and that the governor has consistently underestimated revenues by $100,000,000 annually.

"This tactic of consistent and persistent misrepresentation," the study continued, "could be to form a smoke screen behind which to conceal great extravagance in the state's ordinary operating expenses."

The report said that increases "permeate the whole administrative structure" and "are most notable in the executive department of the governor himself."

The Democratic report claimed appropriations for ordinary state operations and maintenance had jumped 112 per cent during Dewey's tenure.

The report said also that the administration was "insensitive to the needs of local government" and the "financial plight" of teachers.

Replying to the Democratic attack, Senator Benjamin F. Feinberg and Speaker Oswald D. Heck, the G.O.P. legislative leaders, reviewed the administration's veteran's program, its increase in state aid to education, its pay raises for state employees and its reduction of taxes and asked whether the opposition wanted to change any of these.

"Fortunately the Dewey administration puts human values above property," Feinberg and Heck said.

The citizens' public expenditure survey meanwhile released a statement declaring general fund expenditures for state purposes had increased $80,000,000 between 1936 and 1947.

MR. WAUD GOES TO WASHINGTON

Cyrus J. Waud, an employee of a soup canning company in Camden, N. J., pours his troubled heart out to the Senate Banking Committee hearing in Washington on price controls. He told the Banking Committee what a struggle it is to support a family of eight on $40 a week, prices being what they are. Waud is shown above with his wife and two of their children, Ruth, 10, and Lois, 11. (NEA Telephoto)

Cannery Worker Tells Committee Of Living Costs

Washington, Jan. 28 (AP)—A salary of $2,500 a year doesn't buy much food for a family of eight, a New Jersey cannery worker told the Senate Banking Committee yesterday.

"We walk into the store," said Cyrus J. Waud, 36, of Camden, "and prices are so high we can't reach the shelf."

"We'll only have about 65 cents worth of meat this week. I can't buy more than 12 quarts of milk a week. We ought to have 28."

"We are just existing."

Beside Waud as he testified were his wife and two small daughters. Said Mrs. Waud: "We never have orange juice. Lois is not well. She is undernourished."

The Wauds don't smoke or drink or go to the movies, they said, because they can't afford it. When they had finished telling their story, Chairman Tobey (R-N. H.) slipped a $5 bill into the hand of 11-year-old Lois and promised to arrange for a car to take the Wauds on a tour of Washington.

And he said he will ask officials of the food companies to tell the committee next week "whether these high prices are justified."

15% LESS HEATING OIL
THIS WINTER

The heating oil supply situation is critical. Unless you and other users of heating oil burn 15% less than normal the balance of this winter, your home may be cold! Today the industry's production is the greatest in history. BUT—still not enough to meet the record demand. To save your home from being cold, take these steps now: Set thermostat at 68°...turn down to 60° at night or when away...keep radiators open in all unused rooms...use fireplace whenever possible—keep flues closed when not in use.

On this subject he explained that 'sometimes, due to unfavorable conditions, the natural drop is sufficiently heavy to eliminate any need to thinning, and it might be heavy enough to result in an abnormally small crop.'

Pay Roll Is Stolen

New York, Jan. 28 (AP)—A young woman bookkeeper was beaten with the butt end of a gun and robbed of a $2,800 pay roll by two Negroes today in the lobby of an office building at 301 West 37th street. The bookkeeper, Miriam Jacoby, 22, of Brooklyn, got the money at the Yorktown Bank, 500 Seventh avenue. She was waiting for an elevator in the building where her firm—the Bell-Art Stencil and Pleading Co.—has offices when approached by the robbers. Rep. A. L. Miller (R-Neb.) told a reporter he expects the General back around April 15.

He would not say why he thinks so, but hinted that a Congressional committee may invite MacArthur to report on the situation in Japan.

"He undoubtedly will address a joint session of Congress," Miller said.

MacArthur, he added, "is my choice for president."

Speaker Martin (R-Mass.) told newsmen later that he had heard nothing of any such plan. By custom, joint sessions are arranged through the leaders of the House and Senate.

Cold Wave Deaths Approach 160; Gale Hits California

(By The Associated Press)

Winter's relentless siege of cold, snow and ice dealt further damaging blows to a wide section of the country today.

The inclement weather affected many segments of business and industry and made idle thousands of workers. The death toll—in the east, south and midwest—was nearly 160.

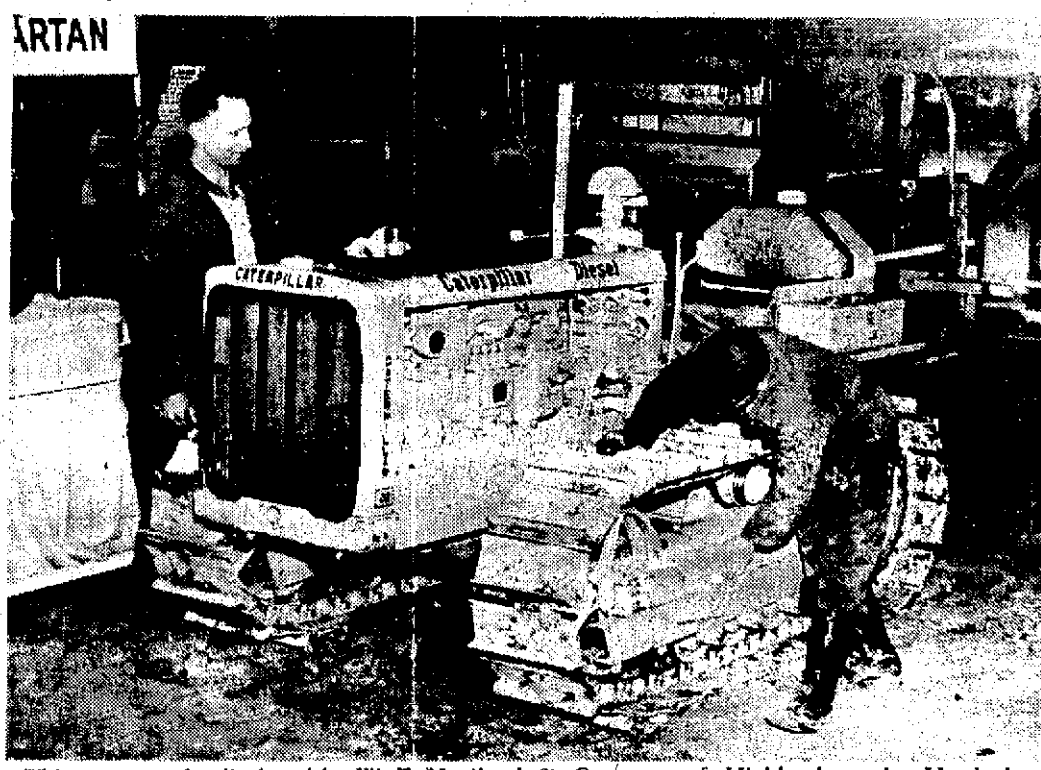

The third cold wave in a week chilled residents from the Rockies to the Atlantic coast. A blizzard swept New Mexico. A numbing cold spread over Texas from the Panhandle to the lower Rio Grande valley. Snow falls in Tennessee measured from four to 16 inches.

Ice from three to six inches deep covered Arkansas and other parts of the south hit by cold weather, closing schools, impeding traffic and disrupting communications.

California did not escape the antics of the elements. Gusts of 85 miles an hour swept through Ontario, Calif., and winds of between 50 and 60 M.P.H. in other parts of the San Bernardino valley yesterday. Trees and some telephone poles were felled as the winds whipped up heavy clouds of dust and sand. The weather generally in Southern California was clear.

In Northern California forecasters said, there was a "bare possibility" of rain for the drought-stricken area. The region has been without rain for more than five weeks.

rested in all phases of rent control. He added, "you may rest assured that we will take care of all important related subjects" before adjournment.

"In the city, of New York," Dewey's message said, "the local legislative body, the Board of Estimate and the mayor procured the enactment of certain local laws affecting the rentals of residential accommodations and the evictions therefrom."

"In pending litigation, the lower court and then the Appellate Division of the Second Judicial Department have determined that the local laws are invalid for lack of proper authorization by state law."

"The local laws involved are clearly invalid and unless their enactment is ratified and validated by state law, the supplemental controls involved will cease."

"This would bring distress to many tenants in the city of New York."

"The bill to validate the local laws of New York city was amended on the night of Monday, January 26, at the request of the officials of the city of New York."

"In order that the bill can be considered today, I request the immediate consideration of this bill as amended."

306 Japanese Perish

would prevail. It has the support of the Democrats.

Governor Dewey said last night at an American Legion dinner here: "I think the legislators are worth a whole lot more money."

He said he believed a "laborer is worthy of his hire," and added that if the legislators are not worth more than they are getting now the people ought to get a new Legislature.

An informed source said the governor would sign any "reasonable" salary increase bill. Dewey has mentioned $5,000 as a reasonable figure.

The Republican members of the Senate and Assembly held separate conferences yesterday on the salary controversy.

Heck said metropolitan New York members pressed for the $5,000 salary at the Assembly G.O.P. meeting. They were joined by a sizeable upstate bloc, he added.

Other proposals included salaries of $4,000, $3,500, $3,500 plus $1,000 expenses and $2,500 plus $2,500 expenses.

Proposals at the Senate conference included: $5,000, $3,000 plus $1,000 expenses, $3,500 plus $1,000 expenses and $2,500 plus $1,500 expenses.

The electorate amended last November the State Constitution to remove the $2,500 salary limit and permit legislators to fix their own pay.

The buses operate largely between here and New York city. The lines are operated by Rockland Coach, Inc., and Spring Valley Motor Coach Company.

William Lester, spokesman for the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen (Ind.) which represents the drivers, said last night negotiations with the operators had broken down. The union is demanding a continuation of its 1947 contract with the addition of a 25 per cent increase in wages. The present wage level was not available.

Teach Children Truth Is Cardinal's Advice

Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 28 (AP)—Francis Cardinal Spellman says that "godlessness is growing" in America.

Addressing several thousand persons at a Rochester Catholic diocesan rally in the Eastman Theatre last night the archbishop of New York declared:

"In their efforts to wean Americans from Americanism and God, the forces of anti-God revile and defile everyone whose opinions and conviction differ politically, socially or morally from their own."

The cardinal asserted that one way to preserve the "priceless heritage of faith and freedom and shield it from the treacherous teachings of the godless" was to educate "our children in truth—in the home and in the school."

Mel Allen to Address K.A.A. at Annual Hot Stove League Dinner

Yankee Baseball Broadcaster Heads List of Sports Notables

Mel Allen, nationally famous sportscaster who has been identified with the New York Yankees for several years, has been secured by the Kingston Athletic Association for the annual Hot Stove League dinner on Wednesday, March 3, it was announced today.

Allen, dulcet-toned Alabamian, is generally regarded as the breeziest baseball broadcaster in the country today and his rich Southern accent and dramatic descriptions of baseball plays has earned him a nationwide following.

Worked World Series

The Hot Stove League dinner which last year spotlighted Frankie Frisch as guest speaker will be featured by the appearance of several other sports personalities, President Charles J. Tiano said today.

The popular Yankee broadcaster shared the World Series assignment with Red Barber of Brooklyn Dodge fame. Radio critics and the baseball public acclaim Allen and Barber as the best team ever to describe the annual fall classic.

The complete program for the Hot Stove League banquet will be announced at the February 18 meeting of the Kingston Athletic Association.

Speaker February 18

Meanwhile, K.A.A. members are looking forward to the appearance of an official National Baseball League representative at the February 18 meeting. John Segar, publicity director of the National League, may attend personally.

Dick McCarthy and Bob Stone are co-chairmen of the Hot Stove League dinner and are already at work lining up details for the program.

About 250 persons attended the Frankie Frisch dinner last year but K.A.A. officials are confident that at least 300 or more will hear Mel Allen. A total of 350 heard Frank Leahy, Notre Dame football coach on January 7.

Tickets for the Mel Allen dinner will go on sale in a few days.

No Peace For Pasquel

New York, Jan. 28 (AP)—Federal Judge John Bright reserved decision yesterday on a motion by attorneys for Albert B. Chandler, baseball commissioner, and various baseball leagues to dismiss a complaint by Daniel L. Gardella, former outfielder for the New York Giants, for damages of $300,000 for alleged violation of the Sherman anti-trust act.

Gardella, who lives at 23 Villa street, Yonkers, N. Y., played for the New York Giants during the seasons of 1944 and 1945 and then jumped to the Mexican League, the result being a five-year suspension from baseball by Commissioner Chandler.

Other defendants in the action are Ford C. Frick, president of the National League; William Harridge, president of the American League; George W. Trautman, president of the National Association of Baseball Leagues; and the National Exhibition Company, owners of the New York Giants.

Cite 1922 Ruling
Mark F. Hughes, attorney for the defendants, told the court "the whole case has been decided before by the United States Supreme Court in the case of Federal League of Baseball in 1922, when Supreme Court Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes ruled that 'baseball is not interstate trade or commerce within the meaning of the Sherman anti-trust act, but is a sport'."

The 1922 case, Hughes said, was identical with the present case, except that radio was not in existence then, but the U. S. Supreme Court held that baseball players crossed state lines and that teams transported supplies and equipment across those lines, but were not subject to the anti-trust laws which confine their jurisdiction to interstate trade and commerce.

Frederic A. Johnson, attorney for Gardella, stated he didn't think the Federal League case applied because "with the advent of radio and national advertising of sponsors of baseball broadcasts, that case has been outlived and is obsolete."

Johnson referred to the "reserve clause" contract, which he described as the "standard contract" in baseball leagues and said that it "absolutely bans any ball player from playing on any other club unless the holder of the contract agrees."

Johnson asserted that: "If Babe Ruth had not been purchased from Boston, he would be playing with Boston as long as he lived. If he played with a small club, like Cincinnati, he still would be there—that is baseball's law."

In The Pocket

with CHARLIE TIANO

Bagatelles:

No matter how you like your sports you should find entertainment and thrills in this week's sports calendar which is thrust upon you in a dizzy whirl of bowling, basketball, boxing.

A thumbnail preview of the afterdark pursuits of a sport nut would read something like this:

WEDNESDAY—Kingston Legionnaires vs. Wappingers Falls' undefeated Pro-Vets, the best semi-pro basketball squad in the Hudson Valley.

THURSDAY—Ronnie Lacelle, Canada, vs. "Spider" Thompson, Buffalo, in the feature attraction of five rounds on the boxing card at municipal auditorium. Lacelle already has been selected as Canada's featherweight representative. Thompson is considered the best U.S. Olympic prospect in the same division. And don't overlook Carmine Virgilio!

Monticello to Test Kingston:

FRIDAY—Kingston High's brilliant basketball powerhouse engages Monticello's highly geared and waiting Monties in the mountain town stronghold. Look for trouble here. The mountaineers have flashed great scoring power in recent outings and are traditionally tough against Kingston quints on the home boards. This is one of two remaining "clutch games" on the season schedule. The other is the Feb. 29 date in Poughkeepsie. Liberty and Monticello both play in Kingston in the second half of the DUSO basketball race. If this is one of the all-time DUSO greats as is the universal belief, it will trim Monticello.

SATURDAY—First of the seasonal big time bowling attractions. Two great tenpin immortals—Tillie Taylor and Barney Spinella in action against local legends in the gala March of Dimes show at the Central Recs where they should be hanging off the rafters.

Spinella, an all-time Eastern great, will be making his first appearance in Kingston. Nearing 60 he is still a great shooter. He shares with Joe Wilman the distinction of being the only bowlers ever to win the coveted all-events crown twice in the A.B.C. tournament—with 1999 in 1922 and with 2019 in 1927. Also won the doubles with his brother, Phil, with a 1336 blast in the 1922 tourney.

Spinella on Lattin's All-Time:

Big Al Lattin, former president of the American Bowling Congress who brought many of the fine Fabst Blue Ribbon squads to Kingston before the war, told us many times he considered Spinella the greatest pocket-shooter he had ever seen. Barney didn't have a particularly flashy ball but he could murder the 1-3 pocket with a slight come-in off the corner.

When we asked Lattin to name his all-time bowling team he selected Jimmy Smith, Hank Marino, Count Gengler, Mort Lindsay and this same Barney Spinella.

Tillie Taylor is no stranger to Kingston bowling crowds. A former WIBS single champion—659 in 1944, she has rated as the top Eastern woman bowler in the past decade. Tillie owns a flock of 700 series and has rolled 190 league averages. Never beaten in a challenge match, she toured the country before the war and knocked off Connie Powers, Maxine Cruchon, Katherine Berling, Nina Van Camp and other female satellites right on their pet drives.

There is a sport adage that says there is no substitute for a winning team. Even a boxoffice standpoint, these four high powered attractions rate the serious attention of local sports followers. The Legionnaires are engaging a real ball club in the Pro-Vets and we hope Andy Murphy and company don't have to play before a flock of empty pews.

Kingston has the reputation of being a good sports town. We have never been able to completely make up our mind on the subject. This week should afford ample opportunity to test that theory. Bowling, basketball, boxing—tuplight attractions in every department. Now let's see how this Pan race.

MULLIGAN MIKE SAYS: Romance lasted longer in the old days because a bride looked the same after washing her face.

Sims-Jones Contest Heads Newburgh Card

Two outstanding name fighters—Charlie "Baby" Sims and Reuben Jones—have been booked for the February 2 pro fight card at the Avalon Recreation Center in Newburgh.

Jimmy Ambrose, the Avalon matchmaker, announced that he has succeeded in bringing the two headliners for an eight-round fight that will feature next Monday night's Avalon show.

Appearing on the same card will be Tony Pelizzi, highly regarded Long Island fighter, who won his first Newburgh fight as a professional three weeks ago.

Fistic experts regard Sims and Jones as two of the foremost fighters in the middleweight division. Jones recently conquered Bill Poli, the promising Italian

Dutchess Five Is Undefeated

The Wappingers Falls Pro-Vets, only undefeated independent basketball squad in the Hudson Valley district, will put the inviolate home record of the Kingston Legionnaires to the acid test, to borrow a cliché from the classics, tonight at the municipal auditorium.

What the Pro-Vets did to the Legionnaires in Wappingers was something the locals won't tell their grand children. True enough, Big Andy Murphy, the seige gun, was missing from the lineup but even at that the final result was something awful.

Westrum on Squad
The Legionnaires haven't forgotten that debacle and on top of the bristling pasting they absorbed at the magic hands of the Hawaiian All Stars they should be in a pretty rough mood for Wes Westrum and company.

The popular ex-Recreation center now with the New York Giants will be making his second appearance of the season here. Westrum is only one player in a star-studded lineup that includes Long John Cottrell, a 15-point average man, the Van Voorhis brothers, Jimmy Hudson and Dolan.

Have Great Record
Not a single team in the Hudson Valley has escaped the wrath of the Pro-Vets, who own two victories over Millerton and have trimmed Catskill, Newburgh and Beacon, in addition to the Legionnaires.

Conch Andy Dykes reported yesterday that morale is high in the Legionnaire camp and he predicted a Kingston victory in a tight game.

The preliminary features the high scoring Kerhonkson Otto Clippers against a suitable opponent.

The lineups:
Kingston Wappingers
Ruzzo f Hudson
Murphy f Holahan
Bloom c Cottrell
Lindhurst c Westrum
Beck g Dolan
Referee—Van Etten, Schafer.

Kurowski Signs
Reading, Pa., Jan. 28 (AP)—George (Whitey) Kurowski is in the St. Louis Cardinal fold for 1948. The star third baseman signed his 1948 contract last night. Terms were not revealed.

20th Century Club Continues

Study of Russia and America. Twentieth Century Club met with Mrs. C. B. Dickinson, 152 Pearl street, Monday afternoon when following the business meeting, Mrs. Richard H. D. Hoerker gave her paper "Russia and America, Rivals or Allies." Referring to articles by eminent writers in various periodicals, Mrs. Hoerker told of the Russian people's concept of capitalism. All that the Russian government allows the people to know of capitalism is a distorted account of government in the United States, she explained. Touching on the war with Russia, Mrs. Hoerker read of the conditions existing. The Russian food problem alone would prevent her from carrying on a war for a long time to come and means of harvesting is primitive compared to the United States, she pointed out. She said that the Russian people want peace as strongly as the United States.

A discussion followed the reading of the paper and the club adjourned to meet with Miss Mary Ingalls, 679 Broadway, February 9.

Music in Kingston Schools

Williams, Newburgh; 'Cooperation, Kids First';
 Marquis of Middletown; 'Democratic Approach'

(Following is the third in a series of articles by Mrs. Caroline M. Setz of the Freeman editorial staff concerning the instrumental music in the Kingston schools, which has been a serious slump during the past year. Words from successful systems in Newburgh and Middletown are included in today's article.)

Robert Williams, director of Music Education, Newburgh Public Schools, says, "The one item it seems to me, that contributes most to the success of our music program, both instrumental and choral, is the friendly and cooperative spirit in my department. My men know that I am as eager for the success of their instrumental organizations as I am for the success of my own choral groups. In this department the kids come first—personalities are out."

Kenneth L. Marquis, director of music, Middletown Public Schools, says, "Of one thing we are proud, in our public school music work in the Middletown schools—the democratic approach to it and the enthusiasm resulting from this approach. We feel that the music is for every child and we prefer to sacrifice a small amount of quality for the joy of active participation, although our townspeople insist that the quality of performance by these groups is definitely out of the amateur class. If we can please our parents and reach our students, then I feel we are on the right track."

Remember Newburgh? It wouldn't be a complete story to discuss the music program in the Kingston schools unless some report came from the school systems in this area who have achieved success in the field of instrumental organizations. Anyone who attended the Thanksgiving Day football classic is certain to remember the Newburgh Free Academy band, Middletown High School, another DUSO opponent, was also highly for band support at games.

Newburgh and Middletown are comparable to Kingston in population, size, location and general accomplishments as cities. Each city's public school system has five full time music teachers whose director is a man whose particular field is vocal music.

Numerical Comparisons
 Newburgh Free Academy has a band of 68 playing members with 12 on probation, orchestra of 52, and choral groups totaling 373. Middletown High School's band numbers 62 playing members; orchestra, 40; choral groups, 235. Kingston High School band, 26; orchestra, 30; and choral groups, 287.

Comparison in quality is quite different. K.H.S. has an A Cappella Choir that is considered far above average. But have you heard the band or orchestra lately? In fact have you ever heard the orchestra?

In addition in both Newburgh and Middletown even the grades have organized bands and orchestras to prepare the students for the successful high school units of which both cities are justly proud.

Competitions Detrimental
 Neither Newburgh or Middletown enter the state competitions in which the Kingston High School A Cappella Choir and soloists have been rated so highly. The teachers firmly believe that competitions are more detrimental than beneficial to students and prefer to have young people perform for enjoyment than on a competitive basis. Both school systems wholeheartedly support the Orange County Musical Festival, in which all music groups from all the schools perform in a gigantic concert.

Planning Is Done
 Both Newburgh and Middletown directors agree that their bands and orchestra successes are the result of long range planning and consistently good teaching and supervision. Suggestions about obtaining instruments and uniforms come from both cities.

Mr. Williams' Letter
 The remainder of the letter from Mr. Williams reads: "Answering your letter of January 9, may I begin by saying that the vigorous instrumental program we enjoy in the Newburgh schools is the result of long range planning and enthusiastic and sympathetic administration. We take the excellence of the band and orchestra for granted, because our system is geared to give us outstanding organizations year after year.

"Our instrumental program begins in the elementary schools, where we offer instruction to fourth, fifth and sixth graders in the instruments of the band and symphony orchestra. This instruction is carried forward in our two junior high schools, where for three years, the budding instrumentalists are under the instruction of highly competent teachers.

"In our junior high schools, the student has not only the benefit of class or private instruction in his particular instrument, but he has the benefit of well-organized ensemble practice. Each of the junior high schools maintains its own orchestra and its own band. This term the distribution of personnel in these activities is as follows: Elementary School Orchestra (city wide) 42; North Junior High orchestra, 38; South Junior High orchestra, 40; North Junior High band, 42; South Junior High band, 46. The junior high school bands are complete in instrumentation, including good instrumentation and fine uniforms.

N.E.A. Policy

"At N.E.A. our policy is to admit to membership in band and orchestra only students of senior high school grade. No junior high school student has ever been a member of the high school band. Membership in the senior organizations is highly valued. This year the N.E.A. Band has 68 playing members, with 12 others on probation. The N.E.A. orchestra has 52 members. Both organizations have complete instrumentation. Band instruments and uniforms have been earned by concerts and are replaced where necessary each year. The board of education helps with Junior High school equipment. Not more than 25 per cent study privately.

"We have five teachers including myself. All are proficient in and teach both vocal and instrumental music.

"In each of our junior high schools we have the following choral groups—Girls Chorus, Boys Chorus, mixed chorus, choral ensembles (sextettes and octettes). At N.E.A. we have the following choral groups—Bach Chorus of mixed voices, 120; A Cappella Choir, 85; Boys Glee Club, 70; Girls Glee Club of three part female voices, 70; Madrigal Singers of mixed voices, 15; Boys octette, 8; and Nathaniel Doty Singers, male voices (Negro), 4.

"Our school day is planned to accommodate most of the above groups in regular periods. A few of the small groups meet before and after school.

"At each of our junior high schools there are classes in Rudiments of Music. At N.E.A. we have a class in Rudiments of Music and classes in harmony first year and harmony second year. We have also an appreciation course called general music.

"I guess that is about all we are doing in music down here."

Yours very truly,

ROBERT WILLIAMS,
 Mr. Marquis' Letter

The remainder of the letter from Mr. Marquis reads: "In response to your request for information concerning our music department in the Middletown High School, I am happy to submit the following in hopes that it may be of interest to your readers."

"Our band of 62 playing members, under the direction of Richard J. Kainu, is an outstanding musical unit, a condition which has resulted from long range planning and consistently good teaching on the part of Mr. Kainu. At the present time the band rehearses during the last period of the school day on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of each week. A more ideal situation would be the inclusion of sectional rehearsals, also. Only a half dozen of the band members are given lessons in school classes. Not more than 15 per cent of the students in the band are studying privately. We wish that more would do so.

"The majority of students in the band and the orchestra, which numbers about 40, began their instrumental study in their elementary school days and in the classes provided by the Board of Education. We make it possible for students to begin instrumental study in the 5th grade, or lower if the child shows unusual talent, in classes small enough so each

Spring Coats Spread Sails

By ERSIE KINARD
 NEA Fashion Editor

New York, (NEA)—Full coats spread their folds for spring like wind-swept sails.

The biggest show-off is the cloak, as romantically styled and as long and full as Maid Marion's. This cloak can match hemline sweep with the fingertips-to-fingertips span of a woman's outstretched arms.

Examples of one that puts on this spectacular performance is the Herbert Sondheim design, above. This is a cloak of beige woolen which ties on at the neck.

child is given careful individual attention. The local music stores cooperate in an instrumental rental plan—which operates strictly between the store and the family (the school strictly avoids handling business of this kind) and, as a result, many students purchase their instruments through local dealers. While the Board of Education provides set of the larger instruments, most of the students own their instruments.

Instrumental Classes

"The instrumental classes in small groups continue through the 8th grade. We expect to expand the program into the senior high school very soon. Mr. Kainu handles all of the instrumental music in the junior and senior high schools and in one of the elementary schools. Miss Roberta Zoch of the music faculty teaches instrumental classes in the remaining three elementary schools, and directs the grade school band. Thus our students have the experience of ensemble playing from the very beginning. Miss Zoch also teaches theory and Miss Dorothy Gunderson and Mrs. Keene Johnson vocal music in the schools.

"I confine my activities in the high school to the vocal department and conduct a mixed chorus of 145 voices, a selected A Cappella Choir of 50 voices and a Boys Glee Club of 40 voices. These organizations meet during the 5th period (first lunch period) of the school day, a period which allows participation to the greatest number of students because of a minimum of conflict with other subjects. The chorus work has been developed over a period of years, also, because each elementary school has at least one chorus which meets weekly and a program of bi-weekly singing assemblies. This work is continued and intensified in the Junior High School and is the biggest factor in the preparation for music in the high school.

"I think it is a generous move on your part to help Kingston schools promote their instrumental program and I wish you and them a full measure of success."

Very truly yours,
 KENNETH L. MARQUIS.

Here's What To Do—

Have you talked the whole thing out and decided to adopt a child?

Often enough, the decision is a tough one to make, but after you've made it, then what? Where to go, what to do, whom to see?

Start by writing to or calling the Department of Public Welfare at the capital of your state. They will direct you to the adoption agency nearest you.

There, an experienced and well-trained social worker will interview you on the type of child you are looking for. Go prepared to ask and answer personal questions.

The interview and all that goes on is of course confidential and only can be successful if you explain everything and ask whatever is on your mind. A large income and fancy house are not necessary. You are required to have moderate means and a normal home atmosphere suitable for a growing child. For the name of the adoption agency nearest you, see our

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY

 Written for NEA Service

Today's hand is taken from the new book entitled "Sure Tricks" by Ivar Anderson of Stockholm, Sweden, and published by George S. Coffin of Fitzwilliam, N. H. This book includes a number of Coffin's problem hands, which I am sure any bridge player will find unusually interesting.

The problem in today's hand is not too difficult but it is one in which the average player might easily make a mistake.

When East plays the nine on his partner's opening lead of the diamond queen, South wins the trick with the king. He is sure of two diamonds, two hearts, a spade and two clubs, but that is only seven tricks.

How can the others be developed? The club suit looks like the

           ♠ A 7            ♥ 7 5 4            ♦ A 10 8 7 6            ♣ K 6 3            ♠ Q 10 6            ♥ Q 10 6            ♦ 4 2         	           N            W            S            Dealer         	           ♠ 10 8 7 2            ♥ J 9 3 2            ♦ 5            ♣ J 5 3
           ♠ J 9 5 4            ♥ K 8 5            ♦ A K 3 2            ♣ K         	           Rubber—Both vul.            South West North East            1 Pass 2 Pass 3 Pass 4 Pass            5 N.T. Pass Pass Pass            Opening—♦ Q. 28          best one to tackle, but South must not make the mistake of cashing the king of clubs. The correct play is to lead the king of clubs, overtake it in dummy with the ace and then lead the ten-spot, to drive out the queen or jack.

If the defense returns a spade, declarer wins in dummy and leads another club to drive out the other club honor. Now he is bound to make four club tricks: two diamonds, two hearts and the ace of spades for nine tricks. A nice example of correct timing.

Figured at $5.29

New York, Jan. 28.—Dr. C. J. Blanford, Market Administrator of the New York metropolitan milk marketing area, forecast today a uniform price to producers of $5.29 per hundredweight for their January deliveries to pool-approved plants in the New York milkshed. At the same time he

Mr. Hoag said that the 2,645 figure represents about 4½ per cent of the registered housing units in the Poughkeepsie and Bank and differentials are estimated that the producer butterfat differential for the month would be 5.2 cents for each tenth of a pound of fat above or below the 3.5 per cent standard.

Dr. Blanford said he expected total production in January to reach 365 million pounds. This figure was based, he said, on average daily deliveries of 264 pounds by each of the approximately 44,600 producers in the pool.

Handlers must submit reports to the administrator on the use made of their milk receipts for cluding houses and apartments. A weekly peak of about 286 leases was reached January 2, 1948.

The Poughkeepsie and Rockland defense-rental area is part of Region II of the Office of Rent Control, which includes the states of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania

January not later than February 10. Using these reports, Dr. Blanford will compute and announce the actual uniform price and butterfat differential for January not later than February 14. Sellers must then make payments to their processors not later than February 25.

Murphy Says City Fire Trucks Need Two-Way Radios

Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy, guest at the annual banquet of Rapid Hose Company No. 1, Tuesday evening, defended the Kingston Fire Department in what he termed "severe criticism" of the department's action in the George A. Dawkins warehouse fire last Saturday afternoon.
The chief, who was presented with a portable radio by Augustus Hance, lieutenant, for his 40 years of continued service during the banquet held at Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, said the delay in the firemen getting to the scene was absolutely unavoidable. "However," he added, "the delay could have been avoided had the trucks been equipped with two-way radios."
Later, Chief Murphy extolled all of the volunteer fire companies of Kingston when he said, "friendship, fellowship and loyalty of firemen served to me is greater than any gift. I have been honored by many companies but their loyalty is most important of all."
Mayor Newkirk Speaks
Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk also lauded the efforts of the volunteers when he stated, "you generally see volunteer firemen wherever you go and we here in Kingston are glad because we need volunteer firemen."
Other invited guests at the affair were Alderman-at-Large Charles J. Turck, John J. Schwenk, former alderman at large; Fire Commissioners Fred C. Harder, Richard E. Riseley and Henry Kelsch, the Rev. Frank L. Gollnick, Captain William J. Geary of Cornell Engine Company No. 1 and Deputy Chief George Matthews.

Sing Sing Guard Held as Smuggler

Ossining, N. Y., Jan. 28 (AP)—Herbert Bousquet, 40, a Sing Sing prison guard, was under arrest today charged with smuggling money to inmates for a fee.
Arrested Monday night by State Police, Bousquet was arraigned yesterday before Police Justice George Beishlein on a felony charge involving violation of the Public Officers Law covering receipt of unlawful fees. He waived examination and was freed in $5,000 bail for grand jury action.
Police said that Bousquet, a prison guard for 13 years, operated this way:
An inmate would write a relative for money. Bousquet would mail the letter for him with Bousquet's return address on the envelope. The relative would then mail the cash to Bousquet who allegedly took 20 per cent, giving the inmate the remainder.
Under ordinary prison procedure an inmate may request money which then is banked for him by the warden's office.
Fire in Truck

Nevada Life Term Proposed for Hardy

Nevada City, Calif., Jan. 28 (AP)—In the same Nevada county courtroom where his common law bride last month was sentenced to die, Joseph L. Hardy, 24-year-old army deserter, was convicted of murder yesterday by a jury which recommended life imprisonment.
A Superior Court jury which deliberated approximately four hours convicted Hardy, of North Kittery, Maine, in the "kiss of death" slaying of J. W. McLain, 48-year-old veterans' administration employee, in a mountain meadow near Truckee July 30.
Hardy was found guilty of shooting McLain while Lois Hunt Hardy, 20, a native of New London, Conn., held McLain in an embrace, the two were accused of luring McLain to the secluded spot on a promise of his receiving Lois's favors. Robbery was cited as the motive.
There was no explanation for the differences in the jury verdicts. Hardy will be sentenced next Tuesday.

Would Have Richards Talk

Washington, Jan. 28 (AP)—Chairman Taber (R-N.Y.) told reporters today he is going to let the Army's budget officer tell the House Appropriations Committee about the Army's budget after all. He thus overruled a ban on Maj.

Gen. George C. Richards by Rep. Engel (R-Mich.), chairman of the subcommittee in charge of Army funds. Engel announced last Saturday he would not permit Richards to appear because he has "no respect" for Congress and tried to cover up Army "waste and extravagance."
